

Original Man Created in the Image and Likeness of God

God's original intention for marriage was that it be faithful, forever, and fruitful. These attributes are the created expression of the divine love: faithful expresses the total self-giving of the Father and Son to each other, forever expresses the eternal love within God, and fruitfulness of children expresses the reality that the Holy Spirit proceeds forth from the love between Father and Son.